

Leaders Of The Future, Inc. – LOGIC MODEL FOR YOUTH SERVICES

Inputs (resources dedicated to or consumed by the program)	Activities (Services provided)	Outputs (Participation- direct products of program's activities)	Outcomes (Results- benefits for participants during and after program activities)	Data Source and Collection Method
Staff: CEO & Board of Directors Volunteers Interns	Financial Literacy Class (FDIC) Money Smart Program (10) Courses For Youth	4 Classes per year with 5+ Clients in each class	Clients awarded a free tablets. Helps clients become financially literate.	Review of Client forms (i.e. intake, orientation, assessment, pre and post tests, etc.)
COMMUNITY Referral Agencies	Pre-adult employment services	Recruit employers Job awareness and mock interviews	Prepare youth for the employment world	Session notes from staff
LGBTQ At-risk youth Aging out of Foster Care Military youth	Knowledge for College	Opportunities for college preparation	Availability for college information	Record of participants attendance and/or appointment
	Transportation Project	Bus tickets or free transportation	Transport to appointment and/or services	Tracking report on class progress
Resource materials Office & Program Supplies	Mentoring Project	Clients are matched with an adult mentor	Provide ongoing follow-up and support	Certificates of Completion Surveys completed by client
Computer Lab computers & Equipment	Family Reunification	Family mentoring services	Families receive one-on-one and/or group sessions	Mentoring session notes
Laptops – Mobile Program	Basic need project (food, housing assistance, utilities, and clothing)	Opportunities provided to assist youth and household	Ongoing basic needs assistance for youth	Spreadsheet of community resources Receipts for basic needs expenses
Leased Office Space	Categorized Group Homes	4 different group home categories	Individuals experience independent living	Living documents kept confidential