

Leaders Of The Future, Inc. – LOGIC MODEL FOR ADULT SERVICES

Inputs (resources dedicated to or consumed by the program)	Activities (Services provided)	Outputs (Participation- direct products of program's activities)	Outcomes (Results- benefits for participants during and after program activities)	Data Source and Collection Method
Staff: CEO & Board of Directors Volunteers Interns	Financial Literacy Class (FDIC) Money Smart Program (10) Courses	4 Classes per year with 5+ Clients in each class	Clients awarded a free tablets. Helps clients become financially literate.	Review of Client forms (i.e. intake, orientation, assessment, pre and post tests, etc.)
COMMUNITY Referral Agencies	Career Readiness/ work force development	Recruit employers Resume preparation, conduct mock interview and job search assistance	Give clients access to recruited employers Secures stable employment	Session notes from staff
LGBTQ At-risk youth Ex-offenders	Transportation Project	Bus tickets/Gas cards/other vehicle expenses	Dependable and reliable transportation for employment	Record of participants attendance and/or appointment Tracking report on class progress
Resource materials Office & Program Supplies	Mentoring Project	Clients are matched with a mentor	Provide ongoing follow-up and support	Certificates of Completion
Computer Lab computers & Equipment	Family Reunification	Family mentoring services	Families receive human and social services	Surveys completed by client Mentoring session notes
Laptops – Mobile Program Leased Office Space	Basic need project (food, housing assistance, utilities, and clothing)	Opportunities provided to assist clients with basic needs	Ongoing basic needs assistance	Spreadsheet of community resources
	Community service	Opportunities for mandated community service	Clients complete required community service	Receipts for basic needs expenses
	HIV Awareness/Educational Program Outreach	Weekly available services (9:00am to 5:00pm)	Clients receive HIV awareness, testing & condoms	HIV documents are kept confidential